Drop Noted In Welfare Rolls

Applications for services and financial assistance from public welfare departments declined sharply in December, but there was an increase in total expenditures for the month. That is the picture drawn from the latest monthly statistics from the Department of Welfare and Institutions.

The local welfare departments reported receipt of only 2,848 applications in that month compared with 3,312 in November, and 3,263 in December of 1950.

There was an increase of $6,190.51 in expenditures for December over those for November. The average assistance grant in December to persons receiving old age assistance for instance, rose ten cents, from $22.50 to $22.60. The standard assistance plan has not been changed for two years, so that allowances for certain items, such as food, clothing, household necessities and personal care have not increased since 1949. What has been raised is the percentage of the need of those applying for public assistance that has been met by welfare departments. As the number of persons requiring help declines, departments are able to increase their allowances to those remaining..

In December, there were 22,066 children in 7,813 families receiving aid to dependent children grants. These grants averaged $51.57 per family, an increase of ten cents from the previous month. Aid to the permanently and totally disabled grants dropped fifty eight cents to $33.57 for the 2,754 persons on these rolls.

General Relief rolls dropped from 2,295 in November to 2,228 in December, and average payments rose eighty five cents to $27.45.

ORCHARD ROTATION
PLAN IS ADVISED

An orchard rotation plan will enable fruit growers to harvest more and better fruit, says Fred S. Dreiling, associate horticulturist at VPI.

He says that a survey of fruit growers in major fruit sections showed that the most profitable fruit crops are borne in the early life of an orchard when the trees are relatively young. Consequently many growers are making new plantings regularly, and on good sites, in a careful plan to keep young trees advancing to replace older ones.

Growers consider the years between 12 to 25 to be the most profitable for apple trees; and from 5 to 15 years for peach trees; and from 5 to 20 years for cherry trees. Most trees of these ages, with their natural vigor, will produce fruit of marketable size with a minimum of thinning. They also require less pruning. They can be pruned, sprayed, and harvested more satisfactorily and with lower costs than large, old trees.

Dreiling says that where new high-powered, rapidly moving sprayequipment is used, the relatively young trees are particularly adaptable because the spray can be easily driven in to insure insect and disease control.

An orchard rotation plan will also give an opportunity for maintaining good soil structure and fertility.

"Before I hear a bid I want you to see THIS name REAL good."

Farm auctioneers know what they're doing when they point to the name "Ford." They have found out the name "Ford" on a tractor works like magic at any farm sale.

And this fact points up a big advantage you get in a Ford Tractor—it sells for more at trade-in time.

Why? Well, for one thing it is the popular two-plow size; that means a bigger number of prospects. Then too, it's a year-'round tractor; a tractor that does more jobs; a tractor that is easy to operate.

Remember, too, you pay less for a Ford Tractor when new. Add to this its greater trade-in value when old and you can see why the Ford Tractor is the buy.

TEMPORARY CHANGE OF LOCATION

You have doubtless observed the new addition to the old banking quarters, which is only part of the entire program of improvement and modernization.

Within the course of the next several weeks the present banking quarters will undergo drastic changes, resulting in lowering the floor to the street level and a complete rearrangement of the interior with the installation of new modern low type fixtures.

Increased volume of business for which we are deeply grateful prompted us to undertake the program, and while it is in progress it will necessarily inconvenience our customers. We sincerely hope upon its completion that we may serve you with increased efficiency and that all of us will enjoy the modernized quarters to the fullest extent.

Please bear with us while the work is in progress and if someday within the near future the present building does not look like business as usual——

Will You Please Go Up The Stairway In The New Addition . . . And Will Find Us Ready, Willing And Anxious To Se You In OUR TEMPORARY QUART

When we move down, sometime within the next several months, we are looking forward to serving you in a completely modernized bank building.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this progressive program, we are yours for service and progress.

Many are anxious to get gardens plowed. And some days you can almost sense spring around the corner. But February and March often bring plenty of winter weather, and the ageless problem of when to plow, and when to plant remains to help us tide over until we know for sure that spring is truly here. One of the best signs is: small boys out in vacant lots playing baseball.

The Rev. H. Frederick Jones sent his love to his many friends here, and they in turn extend their love in his bereavement at the loss of his wife.
